Mercedes “Mercy” Calistro Obituary

One of Visalia/Tulare Chapter’s long time member, Mercedes “Mercy” Calistro, has gone to God’s embrace on May 25, 2025, after a lengthy illness. Mercy Calistro was a member of the Visalia/Tulare Chapter auxiliary several years before the Mexican American Golf Association welcomed women to become regular members of their chapters in 1980. Mercy became a member in 1980 and was a very active member of Visalia/Tulare Chapter, eventually becoming its first woman Chapter President and then the first woman Central Council Director, Mercy was involved in the California State Board also. Mercy will be missed by many. We give our condolences to her husband Joe Calistro and her family.
